CHATEAU BESSAN SEGUR - 2018

CRU BOURGEOIS - MEDOC AOC

OVERVIEW

Way back in 1740, Louis XV said Joseph-Marie de Ségur Cabanac was the richest Lord in his Kingdom: "in on lands suitable for producing nectar and diamonds". The considerable esteem in which wines of Bessan Ségur were held led to a whole dynasty of aristocrats scrambling to own it. Bessan Ségur therefore saw itself headed by a succession of names such as the d'Augeard, de Basterot, Vertamont, Saint Cyr Mortier, Wertimer and then, after the Second World War, Marcel Andron, the grandfather of the current owner, Rémi Lacombe. For more than 20 years, he and his team are dedicated to the glory of this jewel of the peninsula.
