Grown and produced in Lodi, the Zinfandel capital of the world, this brilliantly ruby-hued Zin shows off enticing aromas of ripe blackberries and wisps of allspice. After thorough swirling, a sip reveals layers of blackberries and black cherry jam, touched by flavors reminiscent of caramelized brown sugar. This wine's bold flavor complements a silky texture and firm tannins on the finish. A touch of acid aids this wine's smooth rounded finish.

A great pairing for grilled pork belly, this wine would be equally at home at a table of spicy Thai chicken spring rolls.
