0,75 l

Site: Neuleininger Höllenspfad

Residual Sugar: 6,5 g/l

Acidity: 6,7 g/l

This is one of the winemaker's favourites:
„Lieblingswein“ („Favourite Wine“).
Bacchus is a German crossing that ripens early,
and is usually grown to make sweet wines of it!
Maybe that's why it's underestimated so much.

The dry Bacchus really shows the potential of this flavour-rich variety, it comes light and easy and is our favourite summerwine indeed.
Could be that it reminds you of Sauvignon Blanc,
but less grassy-tones, more sweet fruity flavours.
Enjoy!
Best Serving Temperature: 9-11 °C
